REVERENCE

Present at the Eucharist as the people of God, we share an awesome task. We, the baptized are the ones God has chosen to be a royal priesthood. At Eucharist, the task of the whole people is priestly. We give thanks to God and offer the perfect sacrifice, the Body and Blood of Christ, together with ourselves. It is not the presider alone who makes this offering – it is all of us. Consequently, attention to our duty is critical for a meaningful celebration of the Eucharist. The church asks us to act with reverence – for the Eucharist, for our role in it, and for the community. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal says the faithful should endeavor to make their role clear by their deep religious sense and their charity toward all who participate with them in the celebration (95).

Reverence and charity may take different forms.

1. Entering the church, we greet those with whom we will celebrate this Mass.
2. We sign ourselves with water that recalls our priestly mission.
3. We bow to the altar where our thanksgiving will be made.
4. We genuflect to the tabernacle if it is central in the sanctuary.
5. We sing the songs.
6. We make the responses.
7. We listen to God's word.
8. We pray all the prayers, and listen to the prayers spoken by the presider alone.
9. We share the Eucharist in faith.

At times our actions may threaten the task we perform. When we needlessly attend to other matters or neglect the songs and silences and prayers, we make it difficult for ourselves and for others to carry the reverence and charity needed for our task. Mass is not like watching a band perform music; it's like playing an instrument in the band. Sometimes you play with everyone else; sometimes you rest; sometimes you solo. But we all make the music. It requires attention and teamwork.

To carry out our priestly mission, we practice reverence for God and charity for one another. If someone else's idea of reverence conflicts with yours, practice charity. It helps us fulfill our awesome task.

CAREGIVERS: Caregivers Support Group will meet Wednesday, June 17 in the Conference Room at Church from 1-2 pm. Anyone who provides ongoing care for a family member who is sick, elderly, disabled, or otherwise in need of lots of love and care is welcome to attend. Just come or contact Margo Cotton at 502-223-8520 for more information. We share stories, support each other, pray together, and pool resources

PARISH BUS MINISTRY: We are in need of a few dedicated individuals who want to participate in our new bus ministry. The newly acquired church bus will be used to shuttle persons to and from church for church services and/ or extracurricular activities. Examples might be students from Midway College to Sunday evening mass, elderly persons needing a ride to Sunday morning mass, etc. This program will grow to serve many in need as long as dedicated volunteers "steer it" in the right direction! Those interested must have a valid Commercial Driver's License, or be willing to invest the time and go through the training to acquire one, have a "not too tarnished" driving record and be willing to complete a physical, drug screening and attend VIRTUS training. Those interested should contact Nathan Depenbrock, Parish Bus Ministry Coordinator at: nathan@canoeky.com or 502 395 1535.

DIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL: We had a very successful kick off to the DAA this past weekend. Thanks to the many parishioners who pledged or donated to this very important campaign. We still have a lot to collect to reach our parish goal. Envelopes for the DAA may be found in the Gathering Area. Please complete your envelope as soon as possible and return it via the collection basket or drop it off in the Parish Office.

SPECIAL MASS: A special Mass in honor of St. Josemaria Escriva de Balaguer, the founder of Opus De, will be held at the Newman Center. Mark your calendar for June 27, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. Confessions will be held at 10:00 a.m. All are invited!

SINGING PRAISE PRAYER GROUP: meets in the Eucharistic Chapel each Sunday evening from 6-8 pm. It is a wonderful way to "make a visit" to the Blessed Sacrament. We sing, study scripture (the book of Nehemiah this summer), pray for the needs of many, and adore God in the Blessed Sacrament. Drop in for a few minutes or an hour to join us. No musical ability needed. Some sing; some use the music to quietly pray. For more information, contact Mary Ortwein at 859-806-4484 or mary@skillswork.org. Visitors or new members are always welcome.

EnCOURAGE: Do you know someone who is experiencing homosexual desires, or has come out as gay, and you wonder how to respond as a Catholic? EnCourage could be for you. EnCourage Support Group on Tuesday, June 23 7pm-8:30pm, The Catholic Center (1310 W. Main in Lexington) EnCourage, a spin-off of Courage, is a support group for Catholics seeking to love a same-sex attracted family member or friend in a way consistent with Catholic moral teaching about the dignity of every person and our common call to chastity. Led by two Catholic deacons, this EnCourage meeting will help determine the future frequency of EnCourage group meetings. For confidential inquiries or questions, call Mike Allen at (859) 253-1993x 212 or send an email to courage@cdlex.org.

TOTUS TUUS ("Totally Yours") is a fun and energetic parish-based summer catechetical program, for both grade school age children and junior and senior high school youth. A team of four trained college students and seminarians will spend a week with our parish, living as part of our community and enthusiastically evangelizing our youth.

During the day, children from grades 1-6 are welcomed to an active and inspiring program of short lessons, games, skits, and activities. Age-appropriate Sacraments and prayer devotions are incorporated throughout the day, with the four missionaries spending extra effort on helping the children appreciate their value.

The night program for Junior and Senior High students invites the youth to go deeper into their faith. Through discussion, activities, and fellowship, the college-aged missionaries give witness to the joy of giving yourself totally to Christ.
